

EUROPEAN VOLUNTEER PROJECT

How to become a galet'trotteur

In "Centre d'Information Jeunesse"
(CRIJ) in Rennes, Brittany, France

From the 01/09/2024 to the 31/08/2025

The mission of the CRIJ Bretagne is to coordinate and support the development of Youth Information Services, which accompany and inform young people in a number of areas: jobs, health, summer jobs, international mobility...

This project is for you if you like communication!

Your mission will be to promote international mobility and to make young Breton people discover the different means of going abroad.

Type of mission :

- manage and create content for Instagram and other social networks.
- participate in all kinds of events (forums, language workshops, school and university visits, etc.).
- motivate young people to write testimonies for our platform "Galet'trotteurs" (enroutepourlemonde.org/accueil/galet-trotteurs).
- Participate to a collective project with other volunteers

Depending on your motivation, you will also have the opportunity to develop a personal project related to your own talents and interests

Accommodations and Trainings

You will live in Rennes and have your own room in a flat shared by multiple volunteers. Travel expenses will be reimbursed on the basis defined by the European Commission. Pocket money will be provided, along with funds to cover the expenses of food and local transportation. You will also take part in an arrival training and mid-term evaluation organized by the French national agency.

We are looking for an enthusiastic, young and autonomous individual who is open-minded and willing to work in a fully French-speaking environment. As your organization works throughout Brittany, having a driving licence is mandatory.
