

EUROPEAN VOLUNTEER PROJECT

Volunteering in Multimedia library and digital

FabLab

In Fougères city near Rennes in Britanny

From the 09/01/2024 to the 07/31/2025

The 'FabLab Fougères Agglomération' is located in the 'Médiathèque de Fougères' with which it works closely together on different projects. Built around the idea of creating a collaborative and creative space focused on digital fabrication, the FabLab is free and open to everyone to realize their projects, develop their skills and knowledge of technology, repair, recycle, and more. Events and workshops are also organised on a regular basis. In addition to that, local businesses and artists can reserve the space and benefit from our support and technical know-how.

Missions

- Learn the basics of digital fabrication and how to use the FabLab's machines
- Guide visitors through the FabLab and the Médiathèque and explain the possibilities offered by these spaces
- Help users to realize their own projects
- Propose creative workshops
- Machine maintenance
- Work in link with the 'Médiathèque de Fougères' on different projects
- Promoting the culture of the volunteer's home country among users of the Médiathèque and the FabLab, and in the region in general
- Participate to a collective project with other volunteers

Accommodations and Trainings

Accommodation will be in a colocation flat, a single room and shared bathroom and kitchen to prepare meals. Pocket money will be provided, plus money for covering the food expenses. The international travel expenses will be reimbursed on the basis defined by the European Commission. Regarding transport arrangement, bicycles will be available, and a monthly bus transport card will also be provided. The volunteer will take part in an on-arrival training and mid-term evaluation organised by the National Agency. More Fougères has a rich associative sports and cultural fabric, depending on the interests of the youth, a membership will be realized.

Profil

We are looking for someone who shows a strong desire to communicate, to exchange, and to learn. To us, it seems essential that the volunteer is able to take the initiative, to encourage activities and to propose workshops. Basic knowledge in french would be a plus. No driving license needed.
